

Fellowship to Hear The Masculine View

Do you mumble irritably under your breath when a graceful feminine hand drapes out of the driver's window of the car ahead? Do you yowl when you have to grope your way through a forest of drying nylons to find the bathtub?

Dr. Floyd Corbin, well-known humorist and lecturer, who has exploited quirks and foibles of men's and women's minds on the rostrum for years, will explain "The Masculine Viewpoint" to a meeting of the Men's Fellowship of the Neighborhood Church of Pelos Verdes Estates Tuesday at 7:30, according to Jean Landon T...or, program chairman.

Following a dessert with their wives in the church parlor, the men will host their wives in the annual Husbands' and Wives' Night a high light of the year's program.

Dr. Corbin has appeared on radio and television, including guest appearances on Don McNeill's Breakfast Club in Chicago. Before losing his sight in 1944 he spent 19 years with the Union Pacific railway as expert in tours and traffic. Following loss of his sight, he turned to philosophy, psychology, and human relationships.

He has two LP records, "Relax and Prosper" and "How to Stop Smoking the Effortless Way." Jack Bradbury, president of the Men's Fellowship, said Dr. Corbin's presentation is the best one of the church's dinner series. Reservations may be made with Bradbury or with Ralph Lamb, treasurer, 3008 Via La Selva, FR 5-5602.
